REMARKS

25X1

25X1

1. No changes regarding the occupation of the Frankfurt/Oder (O 53/V 63) military post were discernible prior to 20 September 1951. Training activity was observed only in the Artillerie Kaserne and the Eichhorn Kaserne. Motor vehicles observed

2. On 2 September, 300 Soviet women were detained at the Frankfurt/Oder railroad station and marched to the Eichhorn Kaserne.

the troops would return to the post in October without having participated in the large-scale fall maneuvers. *

3. On 8 September, three trucks picked up Soviet women who arrived aboard the leave train from West Litovsk. On 14 September, 10 trucks drove Soviet women to the Cottbus-bound leave train. During the period from 8 to 12 September, 5 or 6 coaches of each leave train departing toward Cottbus-Dresden were occupied by Soviet women. **

25X1

* Comment. This is the first report stating that no major fall maneuvers are scheduled this year.

25X1

 Comment. The Artillerie Kaserne is known to quarter components of the unidentified AAA Div, possibly the 32d; and the Eichhorn Kaserne is known to house a kommandatura unit and transient billets which have been used for the Soviet women arriving from the U.S.S.R. since August 1951.
